

UNIVERSITY DEGREE

PATIENT PARTNER IN CANCER SURVIVORSHIP CARE

«CANCER SURVIVORSHIP IS MORE THAN SURVIVING CANCER»

OCTOBER 17-18, 2022 (FACE-TO-FACE), NOVEMBER 14-15 (FACE-TO-FACE), DECEMBER 12-13 (FACE-TO-FACE),
JANUARY 9-10, 2023 (FACE-TO-FACE), FEBRUARY 6-7 (FACE-TO-FACE), MARCH 6-7 (FACE-TO-FACE),
APRIL 3-4 (FACE-TO-FACE), MAY 22-23 (FACE-TO-FACE)

FINAL EXAM: JUNE 19 AND 20, 2023 (FACE-TO-FACE OR REMOTE)

TEACHING TEAM

Academic Directors :

Pr. Joseph GLIGOROV, Tenon-Oncology Hospital, Director of the University Institute of Cancerology AP-HP. Sorbonne University,
Pr. Catherine TOURETTE-TURGIS, Founder of the University of Patients at the Faculty of Medicine Sorbonne University.

Teaching team :

Marie-Paule VANNIER, Ph.D. Emeritus Professor in Adult training and education, researcher CREN-EA2661, Lennize PEREIRA-PAULO, Ph.D., Associate Professor researcher at CNAM-EA7529.

Organizational team of the University of Patients - Sorbonne University :

Dr. Marie-Annie LE MOUËL, M.D in charge of the recruitment and support,
Maryline RÉBILLON, Associate Professor at UdP-Sorbonne University,
Sihame HABA, Head of Communication at the University of Patients,
Béatrice MARGAS, Administrative assistance

PUBLIC

- > Academic training program for people who want to use their lived recovery experience of cancer to become partner patient within cancer care services or who want to develop recovery cancer peer support services in public or private companies (cancer@work).
- > Health professionals (medical and paramedical), social or medico-social professionals, involved in the coordination of the cancer care and recovery process..

University Requirements : Hold a higher education diploma or a professional diploma of Bac+2 level or an equivalence certificate or a derogatory authorization issued by the academic directors of the diploma

MAIN OBJECTIVES OF THE DIPLOME UNIVERSITAIRE

- To develop a practice of partner patient in the field of cancer survivorship care and support .
- To contribute to a culture and to the implementation of partner patients within a variety of care organization and health care settings.
- To develop the skills necessary for the recognition of the place of patients as key players in improving care, life and career paths affected by cancer.
- To develop a patient-partner approach in cancer care.

TEACHING METHODS

Classes, debates, collaborative work, role playing, practice training, case studies. Face-to-face and remote training.

ORGANIZATION

120 hours : 84 hours of classroom training
+ 14 hours of remote courses

25 participants maximum.

LOCATION OF THE COURSE

Faculty of Medicine Sorbonne University,
University of Patients Salpêtrière Hospital, Stomatology Building
- (3rd floor) 91 boulevard de l'hôpital, 75013 PARIS

Location / Nearest access:

Entrance to CHU Pitié-Salpêtrière / Boulevard Vincent Auriol

Metro: line 6 (Chevaleret)

FEES

University fees: 170 euros

Teaching fees:

Expert patients: 150 euros

Employer's continuing education: 1500 euros

ACADEMIC WORK AND VALIDATION

The validation of the DU is based on:

- > Attendance at training sessions
- > The writing and submission of a reflective paper
- > An oral presentation to a jury

DIPLOMA STRUCTURE

The training is organized around four main blocks of competencies.

Each block includes a set of competencies.

The entire reference is accessible, it has been published and is available on request.

- THE APPROPRIATION OF ONE'S EXPERIENCE OF CANCER
- THE TRANSFORMATION OF ONE'S LIVED EXPERIENCE OF CANCER INTO EXPERIENTIAL KNOWLEDGE
- MASTERING THE ESSENTIAL KNOWLEDGE IN CANCER EPIDEMIOLOGY, TREATMENTS, SIDE EFFECTS AND CANCER CARE TRAJECTORY
- BECOMING A PARTNER PATIENT OR A MENTOR OF SURVIVORSHIP IN CANCER IN VARIOUS SETTINGS

EXAMPLES OF TOPICS IN THE CURRICULUM

- How to get involved in a cancer care service within a hospital, a private clinic, in a cancer-friendly workplace
- History and Best Practices in Peer Support Programs
- Basic knowledge in oncology: epidemiology, diagnosis, different types of treatments
- How to work as a partner patient with a medical team in oncology
- Recovery and survivorship programs principles
- Social, economic, professional, personal, existential, emotional impact of cancer
- Remission, cancer free, cancer recovery, cancer healing, cancer survivors
- Peer Counseling basic skills in oncology survivorship care support
- Survivorship care plans
- From lived experience to Experiential Knowledge towards shared expertise
- How to negotiate and building Pro-peer alliances with clinicians in cancer care and cancer survivorship

REGISTRATION

Authorization for prior acceptance to administrative registration and pedagogical information:

Pr C. Tourette-Turgis, catherine.tourette-turgis@sorbonne-universite.fr

Pr J. GLIGOROV, Tenon-Oncology Hospital, Director of the AP-HP University Cancer Institute. Sorbonne University

Pedagogical registration procedure is based on a curriculum vitae where candidates are invited to describe their lived experience with cancer and their motivation to become a peer partner or an expert in peer support survivorship care, and a statement of purpose/cover letter to be sent to::

M.A Le Mouel malemouel@gmail.com

Administrative registration:

Faculty of Medicine Sorbonne University

«Les Cordeliers» 15, rue de l'école de médecin – Esc. H –RDC 75006 Paris

Tél. +33 1 44 27 45 76/82 or 94 / medecine-dfs-scol3-du-diu@sorbonne-universite.fr.

Information, fees and downloadable enrollment forms:

<https://medecine.sorbonne-universite.fr/les-formations/etudes-medicales/le-troisieme-cycle/les-formations-de-3e-cycle/>

Registration electronic address:

formation.continue@sorbonne-universite.fr

Prior registration for continuing education candidates:

By appointment and interviews with the continuing education services of the Faculty of Medicine Sorbonne University formation.continue@sorbonne-universite.fr / Phone: +33 1 44 27 45 76

